THE DAILY MEMPHIS AVALANCHE.

By Gallaway, Rhea & Cluskey.) MEMPHIS, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1867. (Volume Nine—Number 227

THE DAILY AVALANCHE

Cora Pearl has given $440 for a twenty ounce dog.

The Hoboken Ferry Company has twenty-five barrels of cents for sale at a discount.

Earl Russell's son, now traveling in this country, is the smallest man in the House of Commons.

A Democrat is elected to the Vermont Senate for the first time in many years—viz.: Victor Atwood, of St. Albans.

Andrew Tunsel, one of the most successful horse trainers in the country, died suddenly on the 5th instant, at Louisville, of heart disease.

Hinton Rowen Helper was in Statesville, North Carolina, last week, where he persisted in carrying out his principles by refusing to allow a negro to drive him to Davidson College.

John W. H. Hill, of Culpepper Court House, Virginia, died of yellow fever in New Orleans on the 12th instant. He was a brother of General A. P. Hill.

The Louisiana Radicals, through Hon. Thomas J. Durant, are asking the [illegible] election ordered in that State for September [illegible] postponed for at least a month; but it is [illegible] postponement will be made.

The wife of Mr. Lee, the dock[illegible] won the opera house, in the [illegible] a white ago, died at Prairie [illegible] Friday.

The Washington Chronicore even[illegible]chuckle that Maryland is nearly, if not q[illegible] and as Virginia. This, to all right thinking people, is a high compliment—though of course, intended as very severe.

We regret to learn from the Corinth News of the 24th, that Major Scruggs, whilst riding out the day before, was violently thrown from his horse. His injuries, though pretty severe, are but temporary. His fall was occasioned by the breaking of his stirrup leather.

The Washington Express says: "General Canby's modest and unpretending manners have very favorably impressed the people of South Carolina, who have given him a cordial reception, in marked contrast to the social isolation of his predecessors.

The following receipt fixes the price paid for Dexter: "Received, New York, September 18, 1867, of Robert Bonner, Esq., thirty-three thousand dollars for the horse Dexter, sold by previous agreement, and this day delivered by me to him, and warranted sound. A. W. FAWSETT."

Charles D. Harris, brother of Colonel S. D. Harris, of the Ohio Farmer, shot his only son, twenty-two years old, at Kent, Portage county, on Friday night. The wound is pronounced fatal. A difficulty about money caused the horrible crime. Harris was arrested.

Mr. Vallandigham spoke at a large Democratic mass meeting in Defiance, Ohio, Friday. He said that the pensions and bounties to the soldiers was a sacred public debt and should be paid. National banks he considered a gross swindle. Over twenty thousand people, it was thought, were on the ground.

In the case of Alderman Bill McMullen, of Philadelphia, charged with misdemeanor in office in heading a riot, the Committee of Philadelphia Councils, appointed to inquire into the matter, find they have no jurisdiction over Aldermen of the city.

General Grant remonstrated against calling General Hancock away from the command in Missouri, because of the necessity of his presence as commander of that department during active warfare with the Indians. The last intelligence is that the Indians are determined to continue the war, and will not accept overtures of peace. This news, it is believed, will cause General Grant to advise General Sheridan's immediate departure for the scenes of strife.

A well authenticated case of spontaneous combustion occurred recently at the Watervliet arsenal. The combustion resulted from the spreading of sawdust, instead of sand as was ordered, on some linseed oil which had leaked from a barrel. The sawdust thus mixed with oil ignited spontaneously in twelve hours in a cellar where the temperature was thirty-six degrees.

Mr. Hawkins, the owner of the dam of Dexter, says that there is no basis for the story that Dexter was sired by Clay instead of Hambletonian, as the mare had never been bred to the former horse, and that he had never thought of breeding to him. He further says that the mare is now in foal to Hambletonian, and he not unreasonably expects a second Dexter.

The "hotel clerk" nuisance is growing unbearable, and the New York Evening Gazette preaches a special sermon upon it. It says: "We have traveled from one end of the land to the other, and back again, in all directions, time after time, and we cannot recall half a dozen hotels in which the clerks appear willing to regard the traveler as their equal in any respect."

John H. Surrat, who was indisposed recently, has entirely recovered his health. His sister Anna visits him at the jail almost every day spending a half hour or more in his cell on each occasion. When he is not engaged in reading, or walking up and down his cell, in which it will be remembered Henry Johnson, held for trial on the charge of the murder of Thomas Smoot, is also confined—he engages in devotional exercises.

Mr. Ten Broeck holds his own upon the English turf, and, as proof of the fact, he has recently purchased five or six colts at pretty large figures. From his known intimacy with Mr. Chaplin and Captain Mitchell, there is reason to hope he was in the ring on Hermit. It is stated by a well informed party that he now relies for success entirely upon English bred horses and English training.

The failures of the National banks, which can only occur from very bad management, suggests that it would be better to withdraw from them the issuing of the currency, and place it where it belongs, in the hands of Government. The right as now given to the banks is so valuable that it appears to turn the heads of those having it in their possession, so that besides being a heavy tax on the industry of the country, instead of being managed to promote this industry, the banks are managed rather in the interest of speculation.

A writer in the Pittsburg Post says: "That a rich man who cannot speak Portuguese has no business in Brazil; and a poor man who cannot speak Portuguese has no business in Brazil; and one neither rich nor poor who cannot speak Portuguese has no business in Brazil; for whether he be poor, or in moderate circumstances, or rich, he can do better in the United States; unless he goes out in connection with some speciality."

The New Orleans Crescent, of the 14th instant, says: "We learn from reliable authority, that within the last day or two Mr. Bernard Avegno, one of our largest brokers, has purchased $265,000 of sight per cent. Confederate bonds of the issue of 1861, and $300,000 of the issue of 1863, to fill an order either from the North or from Europe. The prices paid we have not been able to learn. It might ensue that in the settlement of the Alabama and other claims between the United States and the Governments of England and France, the two latter should take the ground which ours has repeatedly assumed, viz: that the rebellious States were never out of the Union; and, as a corollary, that the parent government is responsible for the damages which they have committed."

The freight depot of the Hartford and New York Steamer Company, at Hartford, Connecticut, was burned on Saturday at noon, with a large amount of freight. Loss over $100,000; buildings partially insured.

A Charleston paper says Samuel Fraser, a plantation overseer, was arrested on the order of Aaron Logan, a black registering officer, because he objected to the negroes on the plantation taking a week to get their names registered. A negro guard was organized, who would not let their prisoner ride his own horse, but forced him to walk, at the point of the bayonet, fifteen miles, to Charleston, where, in the morning, he was released by the military, and the negro officer placed under arrest in his place.

THE POLITICAL REACTION AT THE NORTH.

The Causes which Produced It and Its Probable Result.

From the New York Herald, Sept.)

The Radical press, though evidently much alarmed, attempts to explain away the true cause of the Republican losses in Maine and California; but that is a hopeless task. Every one knows the cause is general; that local issues have had little to do with it, and that it lies in the dissatisfaction of people generally with the negro supremacy policy of the Radicals. It is found, in fact, in the common sense and patriotism of the masses of the people revolting against the faithlessness and destructive measures of Congress. But our correspondence shows beyond doubt that an extraordinary reaction is going on in all the great Central States and in the West. The general issues as regards negro suffrage and negro supremacy is the same everywhere—the same in Pennsylvania, New York, Ohio and the other States, and the same as entered into the elections in California and Maine. In these latter States, however, the contest was lame compared with what it will be, from all appearances, in the elections to come off during the next two months. There is another important question looming up prominently in the canvass, particularly in Ohio and other parts of the West, and that is the financial question. This threatens to prove as disastrous to the Radicals as their nigger worshipping policy. The Chase Radical policy for perpetuating a moneyed oligarchy and despotism is viewed with as much disfavor in the West, among all parties, as negro supremacy. The mass of the Republicans, as well as the Democrats, are bitterly opposed to the National Bank monopoly, to contraction of the currency, to the bondholders being exempt from taxation, and to all the other measures of Chase, Jay Cooke, McCulloch and their friends in favor of a moneyed oligarchy. The industrious classes—the farmers, laborers, mechanics and tradesmen—see ruin staring them in the face if this wretched financial system be perpetuated. They see that an enormous debt will be fastened upon them, their labor taxed beyond forbearance, their means of paying their taxes and debts greatly reduced, and the prospect of universal bankruptcy; and all to favor the National bank monopoly, the bondholders and capitalists. Looking at the rapid growth of public opinion in opposition to the Radical financial policy, there is reason to believe the party will be defeated in the West on this issue alone. The whole tenor of our correspondence indicates such a result.

But the main question occupying the public mind at present is that of negro suffrage and a negro balance of power in the republic. The prospect of the whole South being governed by the ignorant and uncivilized negroes, of these benighted blacks holding the balance of political power in the republic, of taking their seats in Congress, and of dominating over the people of our own superior race, with the degradation and ruin that must follow—these are the thoughts so repulsive to the mass of the Northern people. It is this fearful prospect, brought before us by Radical rule, that has created a revulsion in the public mind, and that will surely overwhelm the party that has brought the country to such a deplorable condition. The great reactionary movement of the day is not one in favor of the Democratic party, and least of all in favor of the copperhead faction. The questions at issue are new; old party dogmas and platforms have become obsolete. The masses of the people which have voted on both sides are now coming together as the great constitutional party. They are disgusted with the disorganizing and revolutionary conduct of the Radicals, and with the infamous attempt to Africanize the Republic by creating a negro balance of power. That is the real state of things; and if we mistake not the signs of the times the Radicals will be defeated in the great Central States, as well as in the West, at the coming elections. The moderate and conservative Republicans should throw off their destructive leaders, and unite with others to form the great constitutional party of the future.

WEDNESDAY NOON DISPATCHES.

General Hancock and his New Position.

The President Makes a Speech at a Serenade.

A Speck of War in Italy.

The Pope's Preparations to Meet the Emergency.

Death of the Captain General of Cuba.

WASHINGTON, September 25.—General Hancock was serenaded last night. General Cobb, of Wisconsin, introduced General Hancock, who made a speech. In the course of his remarks Hancock said: I need not assure you my course as a district commander will be characterized by the same strict soldierly obedience to law I might fill as a soldier. I know no other guide or duty. My highest pride will be to perform the duties of my new sphere, not in the interest of parties or partisans, but for the benefit of my country, the honor of my profession, and I trust, also, for the welfare of the people committed to my care. I ask then, of the citizens, that I may not be judged in advance, and that time may be permitted to develop my actions. Judge me when I act, by the deeds I may perform, and conscious of my devotion to duty and my country, I shall be satisfied with your verdict. Speeches were also made by H. J. Walker and Wm. E. Robinson. The crowd subsequently visited the executive mansion, and, in response to loud calls, were briefly addressed by the President.

BERLIN, September 24.—The Prussian Diet dissolved yesterday. It will meet again in November, when it will include the deputies from the States which have been annexed to Prussia.

In the North German Parliament, to-day, during the debate on the address of the King of Prussia, Bismarck made a patriotic and significant speech. He declared in a most emphatic manner, that if the German nation wishes to unite, there was no power strong enough to hinder union, nor was there any power paltry enough to make the attempt.

FLORENCE, September 24.—The Government is sending troops to the frontiers of the Roman territory. Dispatches from Rome state that many arrests are being made of parties suspected of holding correspondence with Garibaldi and his followers.

LONDON, September 24.—It is reported that the Emperor of Russia has refused the proffer of alliance made by the Porte, and he is now seeking to bring about an alliance between Russia and France.

PARIS, September 24.—M. Fiere has resigned the position of President of the Credit Mobilier.

DUBLIN, September 24.—It is reported a suspicious looking craft, supposed to be a Fenian vessel, has been seen cruising off the coast of Kerry.

FLORENCE, September 24.—Garibaldi has been arrested by the Italian Government. He was taken prisoner while crossing the Italian frontier.

PARIS, September 24.—Troops have left France for Rome.

LIVERPOOL, September 24—m.—Cotton dull; sales 10,000 bales; uplands 9½d; Orleans 9¾d.

LONDON, September 24—m.—Consols 94 7 16; Erie 37¼; Illinois Central 77¼; five-twenties 72.

LONDON, September 24.—It is rumored that Kelly and Deane sailed from Liverpool on an Atlantic steamer for the United States, on Saturday.

A special commission will soon assemble in Manchester to try the parties now in jail there on a charge of taking part in the riots.

An unfortunate conflict occurred in the streets of Limerick yesterday, between the people and troops. The latter fixed bayonets and charged upon the crowd. Eight persons are reported wounded and one man killed. The conduct of the troops is condemned.

MADRID, September 24.—Salutary reforms, about to be introduced in the administration of Porto Rico, are now under consideration by the Cabinet, and a law carrying them into effect will soon be promulgated.

FLORENCE, September 24.—The Roman Government is taking precautionary steps to guard against attack from without or sudden rising within the city. All Pontifical troops have been withdrawn from outlaying posts in the provinces of Civita Vecchi, Viterbo, Tuberi and concentrated in and around Rome.

HAVANA, September 24.—Captain General Marisano died today, and Count Balmoode has assumed the position of head of the Government.

NEW YORK, September 25, m.—Gold opened at 40¾, and is now 40¾. Exchange steady. Cotton quiet, but heavy; uplands, nominally 24½c.

THURSDAY, : : : : : SEPTEMBER 26, 1867

GOVERNOR PATTON, that miserable old creature whose feeble soul is steeped in apostacy to his own race and to the land of his birth, is addressing the people of North Alabama. We perceive, from the Huntsville Democrat, that he addressed a cab load of negroes, Yankees and renegades in Huntsville a few days since. During his slobbery harrangue he complimented one of the editors of this paper by lavishing upon him a panegyric in the shape of vulgar abuse and infamous vituperation. We thank our friend, J. WITHERS CLAY, for his good intentions in vindicating us from the aspersions of this pitiable dotard; but we can assure our defender that we infinitely prefer the abuse of foul mouthed political prostitutes to their praise. The old renegade while prating nonsense, twaddling falsehoods and breathing treachery called us "vile," and said he had known us long and intimately. This is an unmitigated lie, a foul calumny. We had as soon be accused of being intimate with a band of robbers or a gang of midnight assassins, for he who will betray his people huggermugger and conspire with negroes at the hour of midnight in loyal leagues, in order to strike down the rights and liberties of the people, and to manacle the limbs of men while they are quietly reposing at home, and proposing no aggressions upon any one, is worse than the cut throat or the highwayman. We have often heard of criminals claiming exemption or paliation for the committal of crime, on account of the respectability of their acquaintances and relations; but Governor PATTON in his fallen and degraded position—in his shameful apostacy cannot hope to escape scorn and ignominy upon the poor pretext of having once been "intimate" with gentlemen, who would most surely never have permitted the intimacy of which he boasts if they had known the hypocritical smirks and smiles were the emanations of a black and putrid heart, surcharged with falsehood and treachery. Here is another specimen of the driveller's logic and statesmanship. He said "he never was a Radical, and didn't wish to be called one. He was not a radical Democrat or Republican, or a radical in the church. There are (said he) worse radical Democrats than radical Republicans in Huntsville now. Governor PATTON said he "did not indorse the extreme doctrines of STEVENS, BEAST BUTLER, BOUTWELL, etc., but SHERMAN, TRUMBULL, etc., are Conservative Republicans—I agree with them. Who is it that does not want a Republic? If any one, let him hold up his hand. No one will do it. Well, the Republican party is for that. I despise Southern radical Democrats more than any one. I regard MATT GALLAWAY as one of them." You—yes YOU "despise." Who cares or what you "despise," you poor old hypocritical, treacherous, changeling? Your enmity is eulogy. Next to the praise of good men we prefer the defamation of the bad, and since we have the approval of the great Southern heart which beats and throbs for freedom—since we are cheered on by the friends of the victims, who died with sincere convictions of the justice of the cause for which they suffered and bled—since we are supported and sustained by those who refuse to dishonor the memory of the brave men who made the "lost cause" immortal, and to disgrace their legacy of glory by advocating unworthy terms dictated by ungenerous foes—we can well afford to "despise" the hate of a thing like ROBERT M. PATTON, who has been converted into a base poltroon, ready to defile the graves of our slain and to spit upon the history, memories and traditions of the joys and sorrows of our grand but fruitless struggle for national independence. And this old political smatterer says we are a Radical! In what does our Radicalism consist? For two years we have been pleading for peace—defending the Constitution from the aggressions of the fanatics, and from "impious violation the sacred rights our fathers left us." We have submitted to the law which the bayonet is here to enforce. We are disarmed, and have no other alternative but submission, and we desire none other, and propose none. But in doing this, Governor PATTON thinks that we should devour large quantities of dirt, accept the situation with a broad grin, pass resoulutions and erect platforms in honor of an act which hast cast us bound hand and foot to military power. Besides, Governor PATTON wants office, and in order to get it, he would go through any amount of purification by perjury—sacrifice the memory of his slain sons, and stab his grandmother if necessary. The people of the North "despise" such huckstering toadies as Governor PATTON. They laugh in their sleeves at the contemptible spaniels who go around the corners abusing "the rebels" and "secessionists" and beg for office. The Radicals everywhere respect more such men as WADE HAMPTON, FORREST, Governor SHARKEY, and Governor PERRY, than such pseudo Radical vagabond loyalists as PATTON and ALCORN and ORR, who sacrifice their former principles and belie their acts, and who are ready to take any oath and denounce their own people for the sake of office.

We presume Governor PATTON calls us Radical and therefore "dispises" us because we oppose the Military Reconstruction Bill. Why, bless your precious life dear, sweet-scented Governor, we imbibed all our opposition to this infamous measure from your message to the Legislature of Alabama last fall. In that able document—prepared for you by some gentleman of talent and statesmanship—you convinced us the Military Reconstruction bill was unconstitutional, wrong, unjust, oppressive, shameful, scandalous and disgraceful. We here confess weakness in pinning our faith to such a creature. But when we saw the pure and immaculate ROBERT M. PATTON denouncing the Military Reconstruction bill, how could we favor it. His able argument was the sheet anchor of our faith. We did not make upour opinion from a nice balancing of the approval and opposition indiscriminately showered upon the measure from one side or the other. But we seized upon a single strong fact, and planted our conclusions upon that as upon a rock, proof against the billows of enmity and [illegible], which alike dashed themselves against it. Would you believe it, reader, it was upon the opinion of Governor PATTON, a very CATO among Southern men, that we planted our faith against the Military Reconstruction bill, as upon a rock; and now, because we are firm, because we are true to the faith which Governor PATTON taught us, he calls us "Radical." Well, it seems Governor PATTON's opinions are not to be relied on; and that warns us against changing our own merely on account of the fact that a truckling Governor has changed. He has removed the foundation on which we had anchored our opinion, and set us adrift upon the ocean of loose fact and conjecture; but we cannot abandon our opinion because Governor PATTON has forsaken his, though we may be called a Radical for clinging to it. There is more terror to us in the upbraidings of a guilty conscience, and in the appellation of traitor, than in the epithet of Radicalism, and we intend to stand firm to the principles Governor PATTON taught us in his unanswerable and patriotic message. We had rather be stigmatised as Radical, even by Alabama's truculent and unprincipled Governor, than draw upon our head the curses and execrations of every respectable citizen of the South. Governor PATTON may secure the negro vote, and even disgrace a seat in the United States Senate; but, thanks to the patriotism of the people of our native State, no sooner did his apostate spirit betray itself in a sneaking overture to the enemy, than he was dragged to the bar of public opinion and lashed with a severity of punishment which appealed to the compassion even of men who abhor the traitor as much as they detest the individual. The stigma of political dishonor has been burnt deep into his dishonored brow, and he is now reproached in the public pillory by the jeers and curses of an indignant and betrayed people. Suffering under the lash of every man in Alabama whose good opinion is worth cherishing, schemes of vengeance have filled the gloomy recesses of his traitorous soul and sullen spirit, and he resolves to prostitute himself to Radicalism, and to burthern it with the weight of his infamous character. What does the leper care for propagating his own corruption if he can thereby gratify his malignity? The descent from the garret to the cellar—from a condition of high renown to one of scorn, can be swiftly made, and Governor PATTON having tasted the poison of treachery, will soon be the drunkest and dirtiest beast in the filthy den of Radicalism. Let him be spurned and spit upon with loathing and contempt by every man who loves principles more than he loves power and public plunder.

Monday forenoon a dispatch was received by a ward of Thad. Stevens, residing at his residence on Capitol Hill, Washington, dated "Lancaster, nine a.m." Monday, containing the words: "Mr. Stevens is now dying."

A Pine Bluff, Arkansas, dispatch says: This county will send about four negro members to the State Convention, but sorry Rad.

IMPORTANT FROM NASHVILLE.

The "Loil Molish" to be Concentrated in that City.

General Thomas to be Called on for Reinforcements.

Special Dispatch to the Missouri Republican.]

NASHVILLE, September 23.

The municipal election is still unsettled, and both parties are preparing to carry out their respective programmes. The following orders, one from Governor Brownlow and the other from General Cooper will be published to-morrow.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
NASHVILLE, September 23.

To General Joseph A. Cooper, Commanding State Guards:

You will bring to Nashville immediately all the troops, infantry and cavalry you can command, to enable you to protect the judges and clerks appointed by the Commissioners of Registration, and to enforce the franchise law. If need be call upon General George H. Thomas for additional force, to enable you to keep the peace and enforce the law.
W. G. BROWNLOW.

HEADQUARTERS TENNESSEE STATE GUARD,
NASHVILLE, September 23.

The General Commanding having read the foregoing order warns all parties to desist from any attempt to hold any election in violation of the franchise law. He also notifies all persons entitled to "despise" the hate of a thing like ROBERT M. It is said that the President will shortly pardon Alexander H. Stephens, late Vice President of the Confederacy, upon recommendations of persons of influence and distinguished position.

General Hancock authorizes the denial of the statement that he will not go to New Orleans until the abatement of the fever. As soon as he gets through with private business at St. Louis he will proceed to his headquarters in Louisiana.

DIED,

September 25th, 1867, near Morning Sun, Shelby county, of consumption, MISS M. T. TATE, daughter of Z. M. and MARY TATE, aged twenty years.

Thus, after a brief illness, has this lovely young woman passed away in the full triumph of Christian faith, and entered upon her reward. She had but recently made a profession of religion and given abundant evidence of the genuineness of her change of heart. Her death was not only peaceful but triumphant, because "the mind stayed on God." May her happy end lead her many friends in the same path, that they all may meet in heaven. A FRIEND.

A Card.

WE will at once rebuild our warehouse, and will have it completed by the 15th of September, but by the first day of that month we will be ready to receive goods on store.

The sheds will be divided into five proof compartments by brick walls, and covered with tin. Those who have patronized us for the last two seasons, and those who may have proposed to do so the approaching one, may rest assured we will be ready for them.

We design establishing a Cotton Compress in connection with our warehouse, upon an adjacent lot, which will be ready by the 1st of October or sooner. The proximity of our establishment to the river renders the handling of cotton so convenient that we can transfer cotton for shipment for $2 per free of drayage. The advantage of the position is equal to one drayage on all cotton sent for compression from other warehouses, while on all cotton in our warehouse for compressment there can be only two drayages saved, since it would be as easy for us to load it from our shed to the Compress as to turn it out in the ordinary way for transfer by drays.

Public Sale

OF

300 ACRES SUBURBAN LAND

ON TEN YEARS' CREDIT.

I PROPOSE to sell at public sale, to the highest bidder on THURSDAY, the 14th day of November, 1867, about three hundred acres field and Forest Land, on my Homestead Tract, situated three miles east of Memphis, at the head of Union avenue, and fronting the new Central avenue and the Old State Line road. The most popular street pavements being now in process of construction in Memphis, good turnpike or street railways on the roads leading from the city directly through this property, and soon finished, offering advantages the most reasonable probability or its great and rapid enhancement of value.

In stating the advantages of this property, I would specially refer to the HEALTH of the locality as having always been considered equal if not superior to that of any portion of the city environs; while the high character of the neighborhood, and the provision made for CHURCH AND SCHOOL PRIVILEGES, combine to render it one of the most desirable points for a suburban residence which the vicinity of Memphis affords.

PERSONAL.—Among the recent arrivals in the city we are pleased to notice the distinguished ex-Confederate General P. O. Hebert, of Louisiana. He is at the Gayoso.

POLICE MATTERS.—Affairs in police circles are very dull. Only a few cases of the most trivial character were disposed of in court yesterday morning.

The second game of the season between the Pride of the South and the Enterprise clubs, was played yesterday afternoon, and was won by the Pride of the South by a score of 15 o, 38 r to 15 o, 30 r.

UNITED STATES COURT.—The argument in the case of Alexander vs. Fitzpatrick was not concluded up to the hour of adjournment on yesterday, but will conclude to-day. The Millikin case will again be brought [illegible] discussion.

SHELBY COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT.—The argument of counsel in the case of Smith v. [illegible] was concluded last evening, but the court [illegible] jury until this morning. The State docket [illegible] took pleas and continued until disposed of.

RAILROAD PERSONAL.—[illegible] of our genial friend, Mr. E. B. [illegible] road agent, was visible on the streets [illegible] as though his lease on life were even [illegible] hope is the fact.

FIRE ALARM.—Dr. Johnson's residence, on Poplar street, narrowly escaped destruction by fire Tuesday night. Some one carlessly dropped a lighted match into a barrel of rags. They ignited, and an alarm was immediately given, but the fire was drowned before the arrival of the engines.

THE PAVEMENT.—Jefferson street is now one of the finest thoroughfares in the city. The paving is completed to within half a square of the Bayou bridge, and on Charleston avenue from Main on to Adams, so that all the approaches to the depot are now in good condition.

A FIRE.—One of the cauldrons in use by the street pavers took fire yesterday noon from some unexplained cause. It was full of boiling tar, and an effort was made to smother the fire by covering it with gravel, but without effect, and the flames only ceased for want of material to consume.

SONS OF TEMPERANCE.—An election for officers of South Memphis Division, Sons of Temperance, held Wednesday night, resulted as follows: J. G. Jones, W. P.; Louis McGhee, W. A.; George Becktel, R. S.; James Penn, A. R. S.; W. J. R. Lonsdale, F. S.; R. F. Rose, Treasurer; M. C. Cayce, Chaplain; Daniel Hall, Cond.; William Leonard, A. G.; Charles McCauley, I. S.; J. G. Kerney, O. S.

BURGLARY.—Yesterday afternoon some one entered the sleeping room of Mr. Joseph Musso, senior, over Levitt & Co.'s, corner of Main and Union streets, and stole $30 in greenbacks, which had been concealed under a pile of books. Complaint was made to the police, but no trace has been found of the missing money.

Emmons & Son, No. 10 Jefferson street and 368 Main street, have received Waverley Magazine, Wilkes' Spirit of the Times, New York Citizen, Italian papers, Brick Top Almanac, Comic Almanac, Galaxy, People's Magazine, Waverley, monthly parts, all for October; Phrenological Journal for October, St. Twel Mo, a parody on St. Rimo, London Art Journal for September. Call and get a copy.

WIFE WHIPPING.—A brutal fellow—one of the Brownlow annexationists—who answers to the name of James McGhee, became offended at the dusky partner of his bosom, Tuesday night, and gave her a drubbing. Her cries brought a policeman, who marched the loving lord and master to the station house, whence, in default of twenty five dollars, he was marched to the chain gang.

INQUEST.—Coroner Cotton yesterday held an inquest on the remains of a negro Jack Williams, who was found dead on the Island near Wolf river. The verdict of the jury was that the death was occasioned by dropsy. The body was buried on the island.

A PUGNACIOUS NEGRO.—A herculean black fellow, answering to the name of Steve Grayson, was brought before Squire Hall, yesterday afternoon, and required to give bonds to keep the peace toward an ebon hued chap of lesser muscle, who testified that he was "done 'rade dat nigger would do dis to dis pussun."

HELD IN BONDS.—Yesterday afternoon a negro, known as Ed. Young, was brought before Esquire Miller for examination relative to a charge of shooting Jim Berry, an other gentlemman of the brass kettle colored persuasion, near the Charleston depot a few days since. He was committed for trial in the Criminal Court in default of $2,000 bail.

ACCIDENT TO A PAINTER.—The crash of falling timbers at the entrance of the alley separating Messrs. Rich and Lemon, Joiner & Gale's stores, on Main, below Monroe street, was heard yesterday evening, and investigation revealed that one of the ropes holding a scaffold had broken, suddenly precipitating two painters to the ground. One of them was considerably bruised, and it was at first feared some of his bones had been broken. The other escaped unhurt. The men fell a distance of about thirty-five feet, and that both were not killed seems little short of miraculous.

LAW COURT.—The calendar published for yesterday was disposed of up to No. 5,122—S. Watson, tr. stee, vs. Mississippi and Tennessee Railroad Company. This case was partially argued, and will close to-day. Case No. 621, McDonnell vs Tims, has been specially set for trial, and will succeed the previous case. The other cases published on yesterday will then be taken up for trial. The case of Pierce, Park & Co. vs. Jones & Co. comes next, has also been specially set for to-day, and will probably be reached.

A SURGICAL OPERATION.—An enterprising darkey, impressed with the necessity of becoming a member of the nawbobs fraternity and affixing to his name an "M. D." for the benefit of court visitors, yesterday borrowed a case of surgical instruments from Dr. A. M. Sterling. It may be proper to state that the Doctor was absent at the time, and was unkind enough to complain to the police, who arrested the gay aspirant for surgical honors and recovered the instruments.

RACES ON SATURDAY NEXT.—On Saturday there will be two races over the Memphis Course, which promises some fine sport. The first will be mile heats, two best in three. The following are the entries:

W. W. Jackson enters bay horse, Tom Worley.
T. C. Cashion enters bay sister to Lucy Lilly by Lexington.
J. G. Jones enters gray mare, Maggie English.
Jesse Crowley enters bay mare by Reserve.

The race is for $150, and rare sport is expected. The second race is for trotting horses owned in Shelby county, for a purse of $50, free for all. The street cars will run to the track. Pools will be sold at the Opal Saloon, Gresham law building, on Friday evening at eight o'clock.

TRANSFER OF REAL ESTATE.—Henry S. Bannerman et al to R. A. Forter, deed, $200, lot No. 11, in Lane's subdivision of tract near the city of Memphis, fronting on Dupre street, 140.5 feet.

Mary E. McNutt to James K. Polk, deed, $4,000, tract of land two and a half miles from Memphis, near the State Female College, containing 6[illegible] acres, situated on Richmond avenue.

Michael Costello to Mary K. Gibson, deed of gift, lot No. 18, containing two acres, part of the Holmes tract.

Thomas Thompson to Ann Thompson and O. W. Pool, trustee, deed of trust, for use and benefit of second party a certain piece of lot on Fourth street, corner of the alley, between Court and Jefferson streets, together with the house and appurtenances thereunto belonging and personal property.

SOCIETY.—Dr. Laski, regarded by one of the [illegible] as the most distinguished physician in the [illegible] in the valley of Jehoshaphat, whereof the bones [illegible] the loss of a fine set of harness, stolen by a graceless [illegible] named Bill Howard. The doctor smelt a mice. Whether [illegible] the doctor, the Attalian cabbie, for whose news [illegible] his ham, suddenly refuses to inform us. If it [illegible] the former of the doctor's late stable was behind him [illegible] crowing cockney with his classic proboscis. But the harness, what of the harness? Like John Brown's soul, they are marching on.

NEW MUSIC.—We have received from the publishers, McCurdy, No. 341 Main street, their latest musical production, "The Dew Drop Waltz," addressed sweetly to "Miss Annie Sellers," is a composition of more than ordinary merit, and in quick cadences, when it comes from the [illegible] under a delicate touch, is most charming. A Platform Upon Which Southern Men Can Stand.

We lay before our readers the following "declaration of principles" recently adopted by the Democratic State Convention of Wisconsin. It embodies a platform upon which Southern as well as Northern men can stand, and as such we commend it to the observance of every Southerner, in the forthcoming political contests:

The Democrats of Wisconsin, by their delegates assembled in State Convention here, do solemnly declare that the objects of their organization are:

1. To preserve civil and religious liberty to the people.
2. To enforce the Federal Constitution as the supreme law of the Union.
3. To defend the sacred and unalienable rights of the States to their own local governments.
4. To repeal the existing tariff laws, enacted for the protection of a few at the cost of many.
5. To protect the right of labor to adequate reward.
6. To guard capital from public disorder and partisan misrule.
7. To resist the attempt of the dominant party to abridge the right of representation and the elective franchise.
8. To promote the equality of the States and people.
9. To abrogate the present reckless and profligate system of public expenditure and unequal taxation.
10. To oppose the aggressive efforts of the legislative power to govern the conscience and dictate the business pursuits of the individual through arbitrary and unconstitutional enactments on the subject of temperance and religion, and to repeal laws conflicting with the spirit of this resolution.

The Democracy of Wisconsin, by their delegates in convention assembled, do further declare that the present Republican party, by its palpable determination to perpetuate the supremacy of the military power in the United States; by its attempt to preserve the ascendency of a minority party through the subversion of the government; by its unceasing aggressions upon the freedom of speech and of the press; by its open and active friendship for the despotic forms of government; by its invention of false excuses for tyranny; by its unscrupulous taxation of the people for the aggrandizement of its power and enrichment of its leaders; by its odious alliances with the traditional enmies of Republican institutions; by its shameless assaults upon the elective franchise; by its substitution of partisan decrees for the supreme law; by its intended abrogation of the reserved rights of the States, and the permanent maintenance of a national standing army to enforce compliance with its usurpations, has proven false to all its professions of patriotism, false to the government and the people, and deserves the reprobation of the friends of freedom throughout the civilized world.

MONETARY.

DAILY AVALANCHE OFFICE,
THURSDAY, September 28.

The money market has ruled with the same stringency that marked it for some time past. It was to have been hoped that this stringency would, by this time, have been in a measure mitigated, but such has not been the case. The low rivers, the continued reports of depredations on the cotton crop by the worms, and the uncertainty of the extent of the crop, have contributed much to this continued tightness. While we are assured that capital at the east is begging for investments at low rates, the highest terms are exacted here, and only the best paper can obtain money at exhorbitant rates of demands.

THE DISCOVERY OF THE AGE

NO material which has ever been discovered has effected greater benefits in the household economy than

McGILVERY'S MAGIC SOAP.

It is a labor saving invention as well as an invaluable remedy in scurvy, scald head, eruptions of the skin and piles. Dandruff is removed from the head, the tender whiteness and coral pink restored to the nails, and jewelry cleaned, stains effectually removed from carpets, furniture, clothes, paint, varnish or marble with the greatest facility and without injury to the material. It is a great saving of time and labor in washing clothes. It is fine and known may which will wash flannels with the suds or cotton or linen cloth, without fulling or shrinking. All these important objects can be effected without injury to the skin or the most delicate fabric. It possesses no deleterious quality whatever. The world is challenged to produce such an article which possesses so many valuable properties, and which is so inexpensive and safe. It is a home invention, and needs no recommendation of the world. It has become a necessity in Memphis, and its use is rapidly spreading throughout the southern and other cities. It will extend over the United States, North and South America, Europe and Africa and Germany. Manufactured solely by C. F. McGILVERY, Memphis, Tenn.

And can soon be found in any respectable family grocery or dry goods store in the city. Orders by mail will receive prompt attention. Agents wanted in every town with the rapidly extending demand for its use.
